

BROOKLINE COLLEGE

(ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO CAMPUSES ONLY)

Brookline College has developed a private loan lender list with the sole purpose of servicing its' students. As the student, you always have the right to select the lender of your choice. Brookline College considered several factors when constructing our lender list such as loan program fees, superior borrower benefits offered to the student, and the ease of the application process. While Brookline College has identified lenders, we strongly encourage all students to research various loan programs, lenders, and the benefits associated with each. If you would like to use a lender that is not listed, please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Important Notes:

Borrowers have the right to cancel or decrease their loans before, or in some cases after, they have been disbursed. Please work with the Financial Aid Office and your lender in order to ensure that this process is completed properly. In most cases interest rates and fees begin to accrue after the first disbursement.

As a borrower you are the responsible party signed to a private loan and have rights and responsibilities.

All borrowers considering private education loans may be eligible for Title IV federal student aid and should apply for such aid before considering a private loan. Terms and conditions of Title IV federal student aid may be more favorable than the terms of private education loans. Private loans should be used to supplement Title IV federal student aid, not to replace it.
